We celebrate St Andrew’s Day on 30 November. Can you name some of the other countries that also have St Andrew for their patron saint?

_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _, _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ and _ _ _ _ _ _ _

Mary Queen of Scots organised an enormous party here at Stirling Castle, just before Christmas 1566. She had new outfits made for some of her nobles. What colours were they?

_ _ _ _ , _ _ _ _ and _ _ _ _ _ _ _

Christmas was celebrated in medieval Scotland with dancing, feasting and games. How many days did the celebrations usually go on for?

_ _ _ _ _ _ _

Winter celebrations happened on the days around the shortest day of the year. What is this day called?

_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _
In Renaissance Scotland, on which day did people usually give each other presents?

On the last day of winter celebrations, a special cake was made with a bean hidden inside. Whoever found the bean became king or queen for the day. What was the cake called?

People dressed up and swapped roles during the winter celebrations. What did boys often dress up as?

In Renaissance Scotland, on which day did people usually give each other presents?

We celebrate the national poet, Robert Burns, each year on 25 January. In his poem, what do we do in winter days?

What was Christmas time usually called in medieval Scotland? Spell out the answer from the circled letters in your answers.

Wishing you all a merry and a happy New Year!