Elgin Cathedral and its graveyard are full of sculpture and symbols. Tick off the ones you find, then add up your score. Ask the steward if you need any help.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Tallest grave</th>
<th>Points: 10</th>
<th>Oldest grave</th>
<th>Points: 10</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td><img src="image1.png" alt="Tallest grave" /></td>
<td>This gravestone for the Anderson family could be the tallest in Scotland. It is five metres high.</td>
<td><img src="image2.png" alt="Oldest grave" /></td>
<td>We think this grave is the oldest here. At the man’s feet is a lion which has lost its head. The lion is guarding the tomb.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Pictish stone</th>
<th>Points: 15</th>
<th>Tomb painting</th>
<th>Points: 20</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td><img src="image3.png" alt="Pictish stone" /></td>
<td>This Pictish stone probably dates from the 800s. It was found in the centre of Elgin and then moved here.</td>
<td><img src="image4.png" alt="Tomb painting" /></td>
<td>Medieval tombs would have been decorated and brightly painted. This outline of an angel survives on the tomb of Bishop John Winchester.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Heart symbol</th>
<th>Points: 40</th>
<th>Glove maker</th>
<th>Points: 20</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td><img src="image5.png" alt="Heart symbol" /></td>
<td>A heart on gravestones is often a symbol of the soul and a belief in life after death.</td>
<td><img src="image6.png" alt="Glove maker" /></td>
<td>Grave symbols often show what the person did for a living. A glove and a pair of scissors mean the person was a ‘glover’ (a glove maker).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
We think this carving is of Bishop Archibald. He was bishop of Moray in the 1200s and was buried in the cathedral.

‘Memento mori’ is Latin for ‘Remember you must die’. It reminded people that life is short and to live a good life.

Some graves have a picture of the dead person. This portrait is of the Duchess of Gordon.

This shield is the royal coat of arms of Scotland, the symbol of the kings and queens.

‘Memento mori’ is Latin for ‘Remember you must die’. It reminded people that life is short and to live a good life.

When a church is built it needs to be consecrated (made sacred). 12 crosses were placed inside the church as part of this process.

This statue of a bishop used to be on the cathedral’s central tower. Can you find where he is now?

10 - 60 points

61 - 120 points

121 - 160 points

161 - 200 points

Leading lion

Ace angel

Top dog

Super star

Points: 15

Points: 15

Points: 15

Points: 10

Points: 10

Points: 20