Linlithgow Loch
Explorer Quiz

Explore our loch and peel with this fun, fact-finding mission and uncover clues in the most unexpected places.

Remember to ask a steward if you need any help.

1. What food should you not feed the swans?

2. Can you find... a moorhen, with its red flash?

3. Can you find... a mallard, with a yellow beak and green head?

4. Can you find... a coot with its white streak and beak?

5. Can you find... a tufted duck, with a yellow eye and tufty feathers behind its head?

6. What is the name for the ancient dwellings that used to be on the loch?
What does the name ‘Linlithgow’ mean?

In the last Ice Age, a chunk of ice made a hole here, which filled with water to form the loch. It was a K______ hole.

What kind of bird has a special courting dance that can be seen here in early spring?

Can you find... an oak tree? They can live to be 500 years old.

Can you find... a sycamore tree? Their seed pods fly like helicopters.

Can you find... a rowan tree? People once thought they kept away witches!

What does the name ‘Linlithgow’ mean?

In the last Ice Age, a chunk of ice made a hole here, which filled with water to form the loch. It was a K______ hole.

What kind of bird has a special courting dance that can be seen here in early spring?

Can you find... an oak tree? They can live to be 500 years old.

Can you find... a sycamore tree? Their seed pods fly like helicopters.

Can you find... a rowan tree? People once thought they kept away witches!