LINLITHGOW PALACE

CEREMONIES & PHOTOGRAPHY

Once a favoured royal residence of the Stewart monarchs and best known as the birthplace of Mary Queen of Scots, Linlithgow Palace is beautifully situated in its own park beside Linlithgow Loch.

The grand ruins of the palace boast magnificent facades and a courtyard fountain which epitomises the decadence of the period. All this and more makes Linlithgow Palace an ideal wedding venue.

Location

In Linlithgow off the M9, mid-way between Edinburgh and Stirling.
Postcode: EH49 7AL

Venues

The Undercroft: An atmospheric room situated off the main courtyard with a vaulted ceiling and polished wooden floor.
Capacity: 60 people.

The Great Hall: Once the venue for royal banquets, this grand roofless hall features a magnificent fireplace. Available for religious and humanist wedding ceremonies only.
Capacity: 60 people.

Facilities

60 chairs, a red carpet, two tables with tablecloths, a table top lectern, a battery powered CD/USB/SD audio player, electric candles and six iron flower/candle stands are available.

Additional Information

Candles are not permitted at this site. The Undercroft is fully wheelchair accessible. The Great Hall is only accessible via stairs.
